

Dear Forestlands Shareholder – 20/10/2017

We had hoped to update you today on developments and had provided a draft to the FMA. They have responded and would like to make comment on the draft and have said that they will revert next week. Once they have done so, we will post an update. Apologies for the delay.

Regards

Forestlands